GETTING STARTED!

A few hints and suggestions to help prepare you for the start of term:

1. Your degree
   Check out your degree homepage for an introduction to your course, including your degree structure and Degree Tutor (http://www.ucl.ac.uk/history/postgraduatestudy/taughtmasters/ma_degrees).

2. Module choices
   Click the modules link (http://www.ucl.ac.uk/history/postgraduatestudy/taughtmasters/courses_13_14) to view links to all modules available this year. If you click on the module titles you will find further course information. Before doing this, check your degree structure as a guide to what courses you should be taking. Please note that you will have the opportunity to discuss your module choices and change them when you meet your Degree Tutor in induction week.

3. Induction
   Check out the central induction events (circulated separately by UCL Admissions) and departmental events (included in this pack).

4. Handbook
   Find the Departmental Information for Graduate Students on the current students' homepage (http://www.ucl.ac.uk/history/postgraduatestudy/taughtmasters/useful_info) for general information about the department. Hard copies will be circulated during induction week.

5. Moodle
   All History modules currently running have Moodle pages where you can find more information about the courses, including bibliographies. Log in as a guest (beneath the main login fields) and then search by module code. The standard UCL History password is 'pizza' but you can contact history.office@ucl.ac.uk if you are having trouble gaining access. Here are some pages you might like to check out:
   HISTGM01 - The core course page for History, European History and Transnational Studies
   HISTGC01 - The core course page for Chinese Health and Humanity
   MA Transnational Studies - the hub for TNS students
   Please note that modules which are new may have pages incomplete or under construction.
