EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

At UCL our principal concern when considering applications is to recruit and select students who are likely to complete the programme successfully and derive benefit from it. Once these requirements are met, we regard other issues such as disability, ethnic origin, sex, marital status, number of children, beliefs relating to religion, politics and sexual orientation as irrelevant.

APPLICANT'S DECLARATION

To the best of my knowledge, the information on this application is accurate and complete. (Please note that UCL reserves the right to refuse admission or to terminate a student's attendance should it be discovered that he/she has made a false statement or has omitted significant information. If you are offered a place, you will be required to provide evidence of your qualifications.)

Data Protection Act 1998: I agree to UCL processing personal data contained on this form, or other data which UCL may obtain from me or other people or organisations while I am applying for admission. I agree to the processing and disclosure of such data for any purpose connected with my studies, or my health and safety while on UCL's premises or for any other legitimate purpose.
