

Programme Amendments Approved since JFTC Meeting 28 May 2013

Department	Programme	Proposed change
SSEES	Russian with an East European Language	Amendment to diet to bring greater coherence to the core literature provision
History	BA History	Changes to programme diet following syllabus review to provide more intensive training in transferable and subject-specific skills in year 1, ensure a breadth of knowledge and embed a clear path of progression within the degree structure.
History	BA History with a European Language	Changes to programme diet following syllabus review to provide more intensive training in transferable and subject-specific skills in year 1, ensure a breadth of knowledge and embed a clear path of progression within the degree structure.
History	BA History with a Year Abroad	Changes to programme diet following syllabus review to provide more intensive training in transferable and subject-specific skills in year 1, ensure a breadth of knowledge and embed a clear path of progression within the degree structure.
History	BA Ancient History	Changes to programme diet following syllabus review to provide more intensive training in transferable and subject-specific skills in year 1, facilitate acquisition of a range of subject-specific language skills and embed a clear path of progression within the degree structure.
History	BA Ancient History and Egyptology	Changes to programme diet following syllabus review to provide more intensive training in transferable and subject-specific skills in year 1, ensure a breadth of subject specific language skills and embed a clear path of progression within the degree structure.
SSEES	MRes East European Studies	Replacement of 15 credit core module with additional option choice

Programme Withdrawal Approved since JFTC Meeting 28 May 2013

Department	Programme
Arts Faculty Office	BA General Arts
SHS Faculty Office	BA Social and Historical Sciences
SHS Faculty Office	BSc Social and Historical Sciences