Declaration for Affiliate Academic and Other Academic Visitors

Please sign and return to the Departmental Academic Visitors Administrator (Louisa Goldsmith).

N.B. Access to UCL's facilities and services will not be granted until a signed copy of this form has been lodged with the Departmental Academic Visitors Administrator.

- I am aware that access to UCL facilities, information and systems may only be provided for the purpose of non-commercial private research.
- I agree that officers of the College have a right to inspect any material downloaded to my account, and that this material may be disclosed to a third party.
- I agree not to allow anyone else to use my personal account and I will not disclose my password.
- I am aware that I will be held responsible for any unauthorised use or abuse of my account.
- I am aware that my account will be suspended if I set an insecure password and that it cannot be reinstated instantly.
- I agree to abide by copyright legislation as applicable to all material accessed through UCL systems or services, whether electronic or otherwise.
- I agree that I will read all on-screen licensing information carefully before printing or downloading materials. As part of this, if any aspect of the licensing or legislation is ambiguous or unclear to me I will seek advice and clarification from UCL Library Services staff, and follow their instructions.
- I agree that I will not use UCL facilities to download, store or print on any computer or memory storage device any materials in excess of the copyright quota.
- I agree that I will not circulate any paper or electronic copies of these materials to any other person or institution.
