

Bridging the Gaps: Sustainable Urban Spaces

First Year Review Event

Thursday, 9th July 2009

Pearson Lecture Theatre

Followed by posters and refreshments in the CEGE Structures Lab

Pearson Lecture Theatre

2.00 Introduction from the Vice Provost for Research – David Price

2.10 The Bridging the Gaps Programme – Muki Haklay

2.20 Feedback from Bridging the Gaps participants

- Novel approaches to street-scale pollution dispersion – Serge Guillas
- Children, disabilities and well-being: preliminary research in India – Jean-Francois Trani
- Investigating the potential of slime mould organism as an architectural-biological sensor and indicator of environmental change – Sylvia Nagl
- A Generic Interface for Networked Resource Models – Julien Harou

3.30 Progress and upcoming opportunities – James Paskins

CEGE Structures Lab

4.00 Refreshments and Posters from Bridging the Gaps projects

Please Note:

The presentations (2.00pm - 3.45pm) will be in the Pearson Lecture Theatre, room G22 in the Pearson Building.

The posters and refreshments will be in the CEGE Structures Lab on the ground floor on the Chadwick building (4.00pm onwards)

Remember to check our website www.ucl.ac.uk/btg for more information about Bridging the Gaps.