About our team
Our Careers Information Manager and staff are here to help and advise you on how to use the service and information resources. The Careers team also arrange our programmes of workshops, fairs, employer and alumni events, as well as co-ordinating local vacancies for JobOnline.

The Careers Consultants will advise you on a one to one basis and help you develop your skills whatever stage you’re at in planning your future.
How to provide us with feedback
Client feedback, both positive and negative, underpins continuous, quality improvement of our service and is vital to us. Feedback can be submitted in UCL Careers or through our website.
Complaints will be dealt with in accordance with The Careers Group Complaints Procedure a copy of which is displayed prominently at UCL Careers - in the first instance any complaint should be made to an appropriate member of staff. If you are unwilling or feel unable to approach a member of staff, you should raise the matter with the Head of the College Careers Service. Please contact a member of staff if you would like clarification or a copy of the procedure.

Diversity and accessibility
UCL Careers subscribes to The Careers Group standard of service for the provision of services for users with disabilities – for more information visit their website.

Please ask our staff if you need assistance to enable you to use our facilities and services more effectively.
