

3rd International Symposium Basal Ganglia Speech Disorders and Deep Brain Stimulation Institute of Neurology, Queen Square, London WC1N 3BG, UK 24 & 25 March 2014

Topics include:

- Speech and swallowing outcome following deep brain stimulation for Parkinson's Disease and Dystonia
- Imaging techniques in basal ganglia speech disorders
- Treatment for speech disorders following deep brain stimulation
- Clinical and surgical factors affecting speech
- How do patients perceive their own speech post DBS
- Saliva management in Parkinson's disease
- Stammer in Parkinson's Disease after deep brain stimulation
- Motor Learning and deep brain stimulation
- Workshops on: LSVT BIG, Laughter Yoga

Faculty:

Mr Joseph Candelario Professor Helen Chenery Dr Tom Foltynie Dr Cynthia Fox Professor Marwan Hariz Professor Marjan Jahanshahi Dr Katja Laakso Professor Patricia Limousin Professor Ian McGilchrist Dr Serae Pinto Professor Lorraine Ramig Professor Sophie Scott Dr Kristina Simonyan Dr Elina Tripoliti Dr Kate Watkins Dr Jeffrey Wertheimer Dr Helen Witherow Mr Ludvic Zinzro

Who should attend: Neurosurgeons, ENT surgeons, Neurologists Neurophysiologists, Neuropsychologists, Neuroscientists, Speech & Language Therapists, specialist nurses and other health professionals with a specialist interest on speech in movement disorders.

FEE: £200 full fee, £100 reduced fee (AHP), FREE for UCL students/staff

For further information and to register please contact: e.tripoliti@ucl.ac.uk

Dr Elina Tripoliti, Unit of Functional Neurosurgery, Box 146, Institute of Neurology, 33 Queen Square, London, WC1N 3BG, Tel: 0044 203 4488729