Course aims

UCL’s Summer English Course for International University Students presents a unique opportunity for you to experience student life at one of the most prestigious universities in the world.

Taught at UCL’s central London campus, in the heart of London, this course is designed to improve your English language skills in the key areas of speaking, listening, reading and writing through task-based activities which place an emphasis on improving communicative abilities.

Course structure

Classes are taught in small groups with an average of 14 students per class. Teaching takes place Monday to Friday, with morning classes which will include:

- English language lessons
- Visit preparation
- Primary research
- Presentation skills
- Report writing

Guided visits to places of significant cultural importance around London take place two to three afternoons a week. You will be prepared for all visits during preparation classes. Previous students have visited:

- East End of London (Multicultural London)
- Tate Britain Art Gallery (British art)
- A London theatre (British theatre)
- London Transport Museum (British transport)

In addition, you will attend weekly academic lectures delivered by UCL academics, which will be followed by class discussions.

You will also undertake a research project in an area which interests you.

Depending on the regulations at your home university, it may be possible to gain credits towards your degree course from the successful completion of this course.

Entry requirements

You will be:

- a university student or about to start university
- aged 18 years or above
- a non-native English speaker, eager to develop your English language skills by exploring the rich diversity of London.

Students on the course normally have levels of English in the ranges shown below. You do not need a formal English language qualification to apply, as when you start the course you will be tested and placed in a class according to your level of English.

IELTS 4.5 to 7.5
TOEFL IBT 45 to 109
TOEIC 400 to 800
Cambridge PET to CAE

Application process

Please apply as early as possible to secure your place on the course and in accommodation (if requested). Applications are made online at:

www.ucl.ac.uk/ssec

The form asks for details about your study of English and current university course, and there is also a short writing exercise to help us assess your level of English.

If you already have an English language qualification (e.g. IELTS, TOEFL) please indicate this in your application.

If your application is successful, we will email you an offer of a place on the course, providing information about how to apply for accommodation and pay the course fees.

Accommodation

UCL student accommodation is typically offered to students

Estimated price per week per participant (dependant on requirements): £250.
