SUPERVISORS’ WORKSHOPS 2016-2017
For Supervisors of D.Clin.Psy Trainees

The three North Thames Clinical Psychology Training Programmes – University College London, Royal Holloway University of London and University of East London run a programme of workshops for supervisors of clinical psychology trainees in the North Thames region.

Please note these workshops are for North Thames supervisors only. Priority is given to supervisors who are either currently supervising, or expecting to supervise within the next placement intake.

These events are free.

To book a place or seek information about a particular workshop, please contact the administrator of the course hosting the workshop:

Developing Service Related Research

Friday 18th November 2016
1.30pm to 4.30pm

Host: UCL, Tel: 020 7679 1897, Fax: 020 7916 1989, E-mail: placements-admin@ucl.ac.uk

This workshop is for psychologists and therapists who supervise clinical psychology trainees undertaking small scale service related research projects.

Workshop content
This workshop is designed to assist regional supervisors to develop or consolidate their skills in supervising Service Related Research Projects. The workshop will cover:

- A definition of a Service Related Research Project and audit
- The scope and time frame of an SRRP
- How to develop ideas for an SRRP
- Expectations for the supervisor and trainee
- Basic design, methodology, and analysis for SRRPs
- How to assist with writing up (including possible publication)

The workshop is designed to be primarily interactive with plenty of opportunity for questions, ideas, and brainstorming of possible projects.

Please note: This is the final time this workshop will be run as a ‘live’ workshop. Future workshops on ‘Developing Service Related Research’ will run via a lecturecast. As such, this workshop will be recorded. The recording will be of the facilitator but it is likely that it will also include audio of attendees’ questions and some discussion points. If you have any concerns about this, please do discuss this with us prior to booking.
