

Ebooks 2013: New models, new opportunities, new tools

University College London, 9th May 2013, 10.00 to 17.00

The Anatomy JZ Young Lecture Theatre.

9.30am Arrival, registration and coffee at the JZ Young lecture theatre

10.00am Welcome, introduction and Chair for the morning

David Ball, Consultant and Previously Director of Academic Services at Bournemouth University

New Models

10.05am "Access not lending"

Lorraine Estelle , CEO JISC Collections

10.35am Open access and scholarly publishing

Tom Pollard, Co-Founder Ubiquity Press

11.00am Ten minute comfort break

New Tools

11.10am Use of linked data for ebook discovery

Richard Wallis , Technology Evangelist, OCLC

11.40am Discoverability of content

Robert Faber Director of Digital Strategy at OUP

12.10pm Delivering Chemistry to our mobile audience.

Will Russell, Manager of Innovation and Technology Royal Society of Chemistry

12.30pm Lunch

until

14.00pm

Afternoon session chaired by

John Akeroyd Honorary Research Fellow University College London and Director Information Reports Ltd

New Products

14.00pm Integrating e-textbooks into the curriculum

Jeni Evans Account Executive EMEA, Vital source technologies

14.20pm The OAPEN project.

Caren Milloy Head of Projects at JISC Collections

14.40pm Libraries as publishers and social media

Nick Canty, DIS at UCL

15.00pm A new digital textbook publishing enterprise

Andrejs Alferovs, President
Kortext

Tea break

15.45pm Panel session including all participants from the day;
jointly chaired by David Ball and John Akeroyd

16.30pm End of meeting and drinks.