Nutrition, oral health and performance

Centre for Oral Health & Performance (COHP), UCL Eastman Dental Institute, Institute for Sport Exercise and Health (ISEH) and National Centre for Sport and Exercise Medicine (NCSEM)

Friday 28 July 2017, UCL Roberts Building, Torrington Place, London WC1 E7JE

Join us for a ground breaking, one-day symposium in sport and exercise medicine and oral health. World-leading speakers will explore how to maximise performance and minimise negative performance impacts. The symposium will be highly relevant to sport and exercise medicine clinicians and scientists, nutritionists, performance directors, dental care professionals and researchers.
