

September 2012

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE & LITERATURE

INDUCTION WEEK

Dear Modern Languages Plus Student,

Congratulations on achieving a place to study English at UCL. We are very much looking forward to welcoming you to the Department at the end of September.

Your main induction activities in the first week of term will be in your home department (French or German). However, on Wednesday 26th September you should come to the induction activities in the English Department, so that you can meet the staff and students with whom you will be studying for half your time and find out about the courses you will be taking with us. The day's programme is as follows:

Wednesday 26 September

11.00am Room 239 Foster Court – English Department

Meet with the Department Tutor to discuss option choices.

11.30am Room 243 Foster Court

Enrolment in the English Department, when you will be given a departmental handbook for new students, Criticism course study pack, timetable and lecture lists for your courses.

Please bring with you:

- Two passport-sized photographs, with your name written on the reverse, for departmental records.

2.00pm Lecture Theatre B05, Chadwick Building

Welcome from the Head of Department, Prof John Mullan, from Dr Marilyn Corrie, Department Tutor, and from Prof Philip Horne, First-Year Course Convenor.

5.30pm Drinks party in the English Department Student Common Room
(Room 229, 2nd floor, Foster Court).

This is followed by a cocktail evening at Potion Bar on Maple Street from 7.30pm, organised by English Department students.

You will also meet your English Department tutor for the first time on Thursday or Friday. Please check the Tutorial Noticeboard in the second-floor corridor of the English Department for details of your tutor and meeting time and place.

Full lectures and seminars will start on Monday 1st October. The timetable for the autumn term, along with other useful information, is to be found in the English Department web pages, at www.ucl.ac.uk/english/current/index.htm#ug.

For information on pre-enrolment and enrolment, as well as the steps you need to take, please see <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/new-students/>. This web page also provides links containing a map of the UCL site, information on the Freshers' Fayre, registration with the UCL Health Centre (Gower Place Practice), and other useful facilities and services that will help make your transition to student life a smooth and straightforward one.

Additional information can be found on <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/transition/>.

I look forward to meeting you and welcoming you to the Department on Wednesday, 26th September.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Marilyn Corrie
Department Tutor
