First Aid – Annual Skills Update

Overview

This course is strongly recommended by the HSE for all first aiders holding a valid First Aid at Work or Emergency First Aid at Work course accreditation to help keep their skills up to date.

For

All qualified first aiders to refresh and update their first aid skills.

You must hold a valid First Aid at Work, Emergency First Aid at Work or First Aid at Work Requalification certificate to attend this course.

Please note that this course is not a renewal/requalification course for the First Aid at Work Certificate.

Scope

To maintain competency in dealing safely and effectively with injuries and illnesses which happen at the workplace

How to book

There are no future events for this course listed at present.

To register an interest in the course please visit the Single Training Booking System. Once sufficient interest has been registered an event will be arranged and you will be notified.

Time, Venue

First Aid Training courses are provided by the British Red Cross at their Euston training facility.

Half day. The course starts promptly at the advertised time and late arrivals may be refused.

Cost

Free to UCL staff. The full course fee will be charged to your department if you fail to attend when booked on the course event.

Further Information

Joining instructions will be sent a month before the course giving you further information about the course, including a map of the training location. Refreshments are provided but lunch is not provided.

Contact Safety Services on 020 3108 8592 or UCL ext. 58592
Email: safetytraining@ucl.ac.uk