

24 March 2010 (World TB Day) - The Challenge of TB: UCL's Contribution

Harrie Massey Lecture Theatre, UCL

- 1.30 – 2.00 Welcome (Dr Tim McHugh, UCL Centre for Clinical Microbiology)
Plenary Presentation
Dr Marc Lipman (UCL Medicine) – What's going on with TB in London and the UK?
- 2.00 – 2.45 Dr Joanne Cleverley and Dr Charlotte Cash (Radiology, Royal Free Hospital) – The role of imaging in the diagnosis and management of TB

Suzanne Bartington (MBBS Student, UCL Medical School) – NICE says chest X-rays for all TB: What happens in practice?

Dr Andrew Hayward (UCL Infection and Population Health) – Tackling tuberculosis in hard to reach groups
- 2.45 – 3.15 Plenary Presentation
Professor Stephen Gillespie (UCL Infection and Immunity) – Trials and tribulations to get better TB treatment
- 3.15 – 4.00 Poster session and refreshments – North Cloisters, Wilkins Building
- 4.00 – 4.30 Plenary Presentation
Dr Carole Reeves (Wellcome Trust Centre for the History of Medicine) – In search of the lost children of Craig-y-nos
- 4.30 – 5.30 Dr Helen Donoghue (UCL Infection) – Tuberculosis ancient and modern: Studying the past to understand the future

Dr Clare Green (UCL Centre for Clinical Microbiology) – Urine for TB diagnosis: A shot in the dark or a golden opportunity?

Benjamin Irving (PhD Student, UCL Centre for Health Informatics and Multiprofessional Education) – Automated analysis of the airways in CT scans for the modelling of TB

Professor Brian Henderson (UCL Eastman Dental Institute) – Moonlighting Chaperones in TB

Professor Nick Keep (Biological Sciences, Birkbeck) – TB resuscitation promoting factors
- 5.30 – 6.00 Plenary Presentation
Professor Graham Rook (UCL Infection) – Immunotherapy: Possible solutions to the trials and tribulations to get better TB treatment
- Close