

UCL DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

RESEARCH TRAINING SEMINAR 2017/18 – TERM ONE, PART 2

Tuesdays, 4-6 PM

RTS sessions for the second half of term 1 will consist of presentations from students preparing to upgrade from MPhil to PhD status. All PhD students and staff are invited to attend.

31 Oct, Gordon House 106

Natalia Gandara, 'Imperial and republican images of the Chilean Sea, from the mid-18th century to the mid-19th century'

Johannes Hartmann, 'The Cash Cow: the German emergency money from 1920 to 1922'

14 Nov, IOE Bedford Way (20), 822

Alfred Hinrichsen, 'Transnational approaches to Chilean Nationalism, 1840-1930'

Andrew Short, '"Our Land for Christ": Domestic missions and nation-building in the American West, 1870-1896.'

Juno Sun, 'Filmic Representations of China and Chinese in Hollywood: The Second World War and a "New" China on Screen'

28 Nov, IOE Bedford Way (20), 425, PC Lab 2

Ana Grudnicka, 'Religious culture at the court of Holy Roman Emperor Matthias I'

Simone Webb, 'Extradiscursive philosophical practices by women philosophers, 1660-1750'

Agata Zielinska, 'Papal legates and nuncios in thirteenth-century Poland'

12 Dec, Gordon House 106

Karolina Frank, 'Women at the oracle of Dodona in the Classical and Hellenistic period'

Sotirios Peithis, 'Strategic Communications in Ancient Greek Warfare: Agis' Expedition in Argos'