Central London Supplement Employee in receipt of the Inner London Allowance. This Allowance
Recruitment and Retention Allowance (RRA)
Recruitment and Retention Allowances are awarded at the discretion of Institute/Unit Management to address specific recruitment and retention difficulties. Typically they will be used in response to scarce skills, market forces or unique difficulties associated with working in a particular location. RRAs will go under different names and may be restricted to a particular unit or have wider regional and/or corporate-wide application. RRAs can be withdrawn when the original circumstances that warranted payment of the allowance no longer apply. Details of RRAs are published separately in Staff Bulletins and on the Portal.

Animal Care Allowance
Payable to employees who regularly have to come to work during a weekend or public holiday to care for animals. Employees are entitled to the following:

a) Weekend duties
   Either
   (i) time off in lieu on the basis of one hour off for each hour worked, if this does not interfere with the work of the establishment; or
   (ii) payment of a flat rate allowance for each 3 hour session worked at the corporately specified rate.

b) Public and Statutory holiday work
   (i) time off in lieu at the rate of three hours for each holiday worked, and
   (ii) payment of a flat rate allowance at the corporately specified rate.

On Call at Home Allowance
Payable to employees in bands 3 – 7 only for each pre-agreed on-call period. Different rates apply for weekdays; weekends and privilege days; public and bank holidays.

Shift Allowances
Employees may be entitled to various shift allowances. These include –
   Shift Disturbance Allowance;
   Saturday and Sunday payments
HR 2.10 POL Allowances

Sunday Night Allowance
Public and Bank Holidays payments
Excess Over Conditioned Hours payments.
Details of such payments are available from local Unit administrations or Human Resources departments in the Units in which they apply.

Deputising Allowance
A Deputising Allowance is paid to an employee who is required to take on all the duties of a post in a higher band, either in the absence of a post holder or when the post is vacant. Employees must have undertaken these duties for a minimum of five consecutive days to be eligible for an allowance. Once the qualifying period has been exceeded, all the days that have elapsed since the first qualifying day in the higher band will count towards entitlement for the allowance. Employees will be paid the equivalent salary they would have been entitled to had they been substantively promoted - i.e. the minimum pay point of the higher band or a higher pay point if the band minimum represents less than a 10% increase. A Deputising Allowance will not normally be paid for longer than twelve months.

Clinical Consultants Allowances

Clinical Excellence Awards (CEA)/Distinction Awards
Consultant level clinicians may be considered for Clinical Excellence Awards or Distinction Awards under the terms of the NHS scheme. In an MRC context, awards will recognise and reward exceptional research contributions which promote public or individual patient health, or improve the effectiveness of the NHS in providing effective diagnosis or treatment. Awards are funded by the NHS but are paid as part of an MRC salary with the costs reclaimed from the NHS.

On Call Availability Supplements
An On-Call availability supplement may be paid to Consultant level clinicians in line with the NHS scheme. Payments are funded by the NHS but are paid as part of an MRC salary with the costs reclaimed from the NHS.
