

PhD OPEN DAY - DEPARTMENT OF EPIDEMIOLOGY & PUBLIC HEALTH

An open afternoon for potential research students

Thursday 19 January 2012 1.30pm - 4.30pm

Venue: Haldane Room, Wilkins Building, Gower Street. Nearest tube station Goodge St or Euston Square.

1.30pm - 3.00pm:

Registration, Welcome, Professor Harry Hemingway, Deputy Head of Department

Overview of the afternoon, Graduate study at UCL, funding opportunities, application procedures. -Graduate Tutors: Dr Anne McMunn and Dr Annie Britton.

The student experience

Clinical Epidemiology

Ms Anya Scheiwe/Mr. Michael Holmes

Presenting the work of Research Groups within the department:

Dental Public Health International Centre for Life course Studies

Health & Social Surveys Research

Leonard Cheshire Disability and Inclusive Development Centre

Central and Eastern Europe Research

Whitehall II Study

MRC Unit for Lifelong Health and Ageing

Genetic Epidemiology Cancer Research UK Health Behaviour Unit

Psychobiology

Professor Harry Hemingway

Dr George Tsakos Professor Mel Bartley Dr Nicola Shelton Professor Nora Groce Professor Martin Bobak

Dr. Eric Brunner Professor Di Kuh Dr Juan Pablo Casas

Dr.Jo Waller Dr Mark Hamer

3.00pm - 4.00 pm: Refreshments and Poster Exhibition by current PhD students. PhD students and staff will be available to answer your questions.

Venue: Research Department of Epidemiology & Public Health, Ground Floor, 19 Torrington Place, London WC1E 7HB. Entrance opposite Planet Organic supermarket.

4.00pm Address to current and prospective research students. Awards for the best posters.

4.30 pm Close

Please RSVP your attendance to Sandy Persaud at s.persaud@ucl.ac.uk or 020-7679-1697. Please bring this invitation with you.

http://www.ucl.ac.uk/epidemiology/students/gradresearch.htm