Digital Humanities research and teaching takes place at the intersection of digital technologies and humanities. DH aims to explore the scope of the field.

Quantifying Digital Humanities

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Source</th>
<th>Statistics</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Digital Humanities is difficult to quantify. Here we present all available statistics regarding individuals and resources, to provide a context for the field.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Growth of Digital Humanities

Digital Humanities Quarterly

- Institutions: 550 institutions involved in digital humanities projects.
- Researchers: 28,837 researchers worldwide.
- Funded Projects: 330 projects funded between 2007 and 2011, with a total investment of £20 billion.
- Page Views: 134,359 page views in June-December 2011.
- Subscribers: 16 subscribers to the Digital Classicist discussion list.
- Teaching: 44.8% of teaching staff at UK universities have taught courses in digital humanities.
- Research: 10.6% of research staff in UK universities have engaged in digital humanities research.
- Funding: £2,014,626 of funding was allocated in 2011.
- Research Projects: 1998-2008, £121.5 million was invested in 5,481 research projects.
- Weekend: 18% of visitors stay for more than an hour.
- Interactivity: 359 page views in June-December 2011.
- Country: The UK leads in digital humanities research, with 1,037,382 page views in June-December 2011.

Subscribers to Digital Medievalist discussion list: 11.8 subscribers.

Subscribers to Humanist discussion list: 1.1 subscribers.

Followers of @LLCJournal on Twitter: 1.1 followers.

Personal Subscriptions to LLC: the Journal of Digital Humanities in the Americas: 1,64 subscribers.

Countries

- UK: 1,037,382 page views in June-December 2011.
- USA: 134,359 page views in June-December 2011.
- Brazil: 10,987 page views in June-December 2011.
- South Africa: 137 page views in June-December 2011.
- Ukraine: 6 page views in June-December 2011.
- Belgium: 1 page view in June-December 2011.

ACCESS STATISTICS TO MAIN DH RESOURCES - 2011

DFE

- Submissions: 1,037,382 page views in June-December 2011.
- Visitors: 1,037,382 page views in June-December 2011.
- Unique Visitors: 3,018 unique visitors in June-December 2011.
- Page Views per Visitor: 628 page views per visitor in June-December 2011.
- Average Page Views: 628 page views per visitor in June-December 2011.
- Country: The UK leads in digital humanities research, with 1,037,382 page views in June-December 2011.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONAL HUMANITIES

- Funded Projects: 8 joint projects funded between 2008 and 2011, with a total investment of £966,691.
- Institutions: 150 institutions involved in digital humanities projects.
- Researchers: 1,037,382 researchers worldwide.
- Funded Projects: 330 projects funded between 2007 and 2011, with a total investment of £20 billion.
- Page Views: 134,359 page views in June-December 2011.
- Subscribers: 16 subscribers to the Digital Classicist discussion list.
- Teaching: 44.8% of teaching staff at UK universities have taught courses in digital humanities.
- Research: 10.6% of research staff in UK universities have engaged in digital humanities research.
- Funding: £2,014,626 of funding was allocated in 2011.
- Research Projects: 1998-2008, £121.5 million was invested in 5,481 research projects.
- Weekend: 18% of visitors stay for more than an hour.
- Interactivity: 359 page views in June-December 2011.
- Country: The UK leads in digital humanities research, with 1,037,382 page views in June-December 2011.

Subscribers to Digital Medievalist discussion list: 11.8 subscribers.

Subscribers to Humanist discussion list: 1.1 subscribers.

Followers of @LLCJournal on Twitter: 1.1 followers.

Personal Subscriptions to LLC: the Journal of Digital Humanities in the Americas: 1,64 subscribers.