What is the future of the Planet? How is it envisioned and constructed? Does it lie in outer-space, on other planets, or does and should it remain intrinsically tied to Earth?

The Planetary is a central yet under-theorised aspect of a wide array of research. This informal reading group will meet fortnightly to discuss critical literature and future research directions on Planetary Futures.

All are welcome.

First introductory meeting: Thursday 26 January, 4pm.