- Go to Explore via the UCL Library Services website
- Run a search for economist via E-journals or by selecting Journal titles from the drop-down menu
The first result here is the one we’re after.
Select View Online or the title link.
For older issues of the Economist, go to the Gale Cengage Economist Historical Archive
Available from 1843 until 2012

Authentication notes: UCL username and password required for off-site access

Full text available at: Gale Cengage Economist Historical Archive

For current content, the focus of these slides, select a ProQuest entry

Full text available at: ProQuest ABI/INFORM Collection
Available from 1992 volume: 322 issue: 7740

Authentication notes: UCL username and password required for off-site access

If you are on campus, you’ll be taken through to the journal’s homepage

If off-site, you’ll be prompted for your UCL login details
From here you can run searches for terms which appear in the full-text of articles, across all of the issues of the Economist available through ProQuest.

You can set up alerts or create RSS feeds.

Search within this publication:

"federal reserve" OR fed
Browse specific issues

The list is currently ordered by most recent issue first. View oldest issue first

- 2010 - 2018
  - 2018
    - August
      - Aug 11, 2018; Vol. 428 (9104)
      - Aug 4, 2018; Vol. 428 (9103)
    - July
    - June
    - May
    - April
    - March
    - February
    - January
- 2017
- 2016
- 2015

• Scrolling down the search screen, you can also browse by issue through drilling down to a particular date
• Articles are then listed and you can access the full-text by selecting an article’s title
• Click on the Full text – PDF option for a facsimile copy of the article, i.e. to include associated photographs, tables and diagrams