Priment Research Proposal Seminar
2 December 2015
2.30 – 5.00 pm

Pearson (North East Entrance) G17
Gower Street, London, WC1E 6BT
http://www.ucl.ac.uk/maps/pearson-g17

2.30 - 3.15
Optimising mild cognitive impairment diagnoses in NHS memory services: a randomised controlled trial of biomarker access
Sergi Costafreda Gonzalez, Senior Lecturer in Old Age Psychiatry and Consultant Psychiatrist, Islington Memory Service

3.15 – 4.00
Antidepressants for the treatment of depression in Alzheimer's disease: A withdrawal Random controlled trial
Naji Tabet, Senior Lecturer in Old Age Psychiatry, Centre for Dementia Studies, Brighton & Sussex Medical School

4.00 – 4.15
Refreshment Break

4.15 – 5.00
Optimising psychotropic medication prescribing in people with intellectual disability
Rory Sheehan, Academic Clinical Fellow, UCL Division of Psychiatry