

VIRTUAL UCL

If you are looking for information about specific aspects of study and life at UCL, the following social media channels and list of websites may be helpful:

UCL in the news

UCL produces video and audio on a huge variety of subjects, from research breakthroughs by our staff and discussions by our specialists on controversial issues, to student activities and how UCL works with the local community.

You can keep up-to-date with the latest UCL News at www.ucl.ac.uk/news and www.youtube.com/ucltv and follow us on Twitter at <http://twitter.com/uclnews>. UCL on iTunes U (<http://itunes.ucl.ac.uk>) also hosts interviews, discussions, lectures, podcasts, films made by staff and students and more.

Virtual tours

You can use your web browser to take a virtual tour of UCL by going to www.ucl.ac.uk/study/virtualtours. You'll be able to look inside lecture theatres, laboratories, the Library, the Fitness Centre, the Bloomsbury Theatre and the Students' Union. Virtual tours are also available for student accommodation so you can now take a look inside our Student Houses and Halls of Residence.

Studying at UCL

You can watch videocasts about teaching and learning at UCL, and profiles from current students telling you at first hand about studying at UCL and living in London at www.youtube.com/StudyUCL

International students at UCL

If you are an international student you can follow UCL's International Office at http://twitter.com/UCL_IntOffice and stay in touch via www.facebook.com/uclinternational

Lunch Hour Lectures

Lunch Hour Lectures are an opportunity for anyone to sample the exceptional research work currently being undertaken at the university. Speakers are drawn from UCL's wide-ranging academic departments and lectures frequently showcase new research and recent academic publications. See www.ucl.ac.uk/lhl for more information.

Lunch Hour Lectures can be viewed at www.youtube.com/UCLLHL, or downloaded from iTunes U.
