The Provost may also appoint, under delegated authority from Council, an Acting Head of Department either (i) in the event that a Head of Department is on sabbatical leave or other period of leave extending over at least one term of the period of his or her current headship or (ii) as an interim arrangement in the event of an interregnum resulting from the resignation of a Head of Department before the end of her or his appointed term or from other unforeseen circumstances causing a vacancy for the headship [Statute 10(2)].

10.5 Each Department listed in Regulations 10.1 and 10.2 above shall hold a Staff Meeting (Departmental Staff Meeting hereafter) at least twice in every academic year, except that the Faculty may, if it considers this appropriate according to the internal structure of the Faculty, direct that such Meetings be held at sub-department rather than Departmental level. Subject to the agreement of staff entitled to attend such Departmental Staff Meetings (as set out in Regulation 10.7 below), the Head of Department may, on behalf of the Department, request the Faculty to agree to a variation of the requirement to hold such Meetings, on the grounds that the particular structure of the Department justifies such variation [Statute 10(4)]. Such Meeting shall discuss any matter of interest to the Department, whether in the area of teaching content and method, admissions policy, examinations and other forms of student assessment, allocation of resources, staffing and distribution of teaching duties, or other matters of general concern.

10.8 The Head, or Acting Head, of Department shall take the Chair or, in his or her absence, a person nominated by him or her. In the case of Joint Headships, the Joint Heads shall decide which of them shall take the Chair. [Statute 10(4)]

10.9 Conclusions reached at such Meetings shall not be binding upon the Head of Department, who is responsible to the Council via the Dean of the Faculty and ultimately the Provost for the conduct of his or her Department.
11. STAFF-STUDENT COMMITTEES

11.1 In each academic Department there shall be at least one Staff-Student Consultative Committee. 11.2 Subject to the provisions of Regulation 11.3 below, there shall be, for each combined studies degree programme operating within UCL and involving more than two Departments of UCL, a Staff-Student Consultative Committee, which shall meet at least once a year.

11.3 Where the academic staff responsible for the co-ordination of a combined studies degree programme operating within UCL and involving more than two Departments of UCL consider that it will not be appropriate for a separate Staff-Student Consultative Committee to operate for the degree programme in question, those staff shall ensure that the views of students following the programme can be expressed instead through (i) the Staff-Student Consultative Committees of the Departments concerned, as prescribed in Regulation 11.1, or through (ii) an annual meeting which all students following the programme shall be invited to attend, or through both (i) and (ii).

13.2 In such cases the decision to suspend or exclude a Student or terminate his or her studies shall be taken by the Tutor to the Students of the relevant Faculty or the Faculty Graduate Tutor, as appropriate, after consultation with the Heads and tutors or supervisors of the relevant Departments, and after due warning and an opportunity to explain his or her case have been given to the Student. [Statutes 11(3) and 11(4)]

[Statute 6(2)(F)]

14.2.1 Examinations and assessments conducted by UCL shall be subject to the relevant regulations and procedures.

14.2.2 Offences, misconduct or irregularities under the regulations governing examinations and assessments shall be dealt with in accordance with procedures prescribed for that purpose which shall be published and made available to students.

14.2.3 Misconduct under the regulations governing examinations and assessments may, if appropriate, be referred to the Registrar for consideration under the Disciplinary Code and Disciplinary Procedure and may be dealt with accordingly.

[Statute 6(2)(I)]

14.3.1 Students are required to make prompt payment of all accounts for UCL and University fees and dues where these are payable by the Student.

14.3.2 UCL may at any time suspend the registration of a Student who is in debt to UCL for academic provisions without acceptable reason, where the circumstances of the case justify the action. The decision in such a case shall be made by the Registrar. The Registrar shall have the power to reinstate a Student when the debt has been settled or appropriate arrangements made for settlement.

14.3.3 Any Student informed by UCL that he or she is liable to be suspended for non-payment of fees or dues will be informed that he or she has the right to seek advice from and have representations made on his or her behalf by, amongst others, the Students’ Union.

And “member(s) of staff” in this Regulation means those members of the staff to whom this Regulation applies.

18.1.2 This Regulation will override any provision in any contract, term or condition of employment which is inconsistent with this Regulation, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Regulation, but:

(i) it shall not affect the validity of any waiver under section 197 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, any settlement agreement under section 203 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, or any similar waiver or agreement permitted by law; and

(ii) it shall not preclude any member of staff deciding or agreeing to terminate employment with UCL, whether by voluntary severance, early retirement or otherwise, on whatever terms have been agreed.

18.1.3 Members of staff to whom this Regulation applies are also hereby designated by Council as members of the Academic Staff of the College under Statute 1(2) of the College’s Statutes for the purpose of those Statutes (save that they are not designated as Academic Staff for the purposes of Statute 18 of the College’s Statutes, which shall not apply to them).

18.2 General principles of construction and application

18.2.1 This Regulation and any procedures made under it shall be applied and construed in every case to give effect to the following guiding principles:

Regulations for Management

(ii) to enable UCL to provide education, promote learning and engage in research efficiently and economically; and

(iii) to apply the principles of justice and fairness.

18.2.2 Where, in any proceedings under this Regulation, a member of staff invokes sub-paragraph 18.1.2(i) above, that claim shall be considered by the person or persons dealing with the matter, and, if it is found that any action has been taken against the member of staff because that member of staff, within the law, questioned or tested received wisdom or put forward new ideas or controversial opinions, the person or persons dealing with the matter shall cancel that action and it shall be treated as invalid.

18.2.3 Where there is any issue as to the meaning of “academic freedom” in any proceedings under Parts II, III, IV, V and VI of this Regulation, regard shall be had to Sections VI and VII of the Recommendation concerning the Status of Higher-Education Teaching Personnel adopted by the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) in Paris on 11 November 1997.

18.2.4 Any reference in this Regulation to a provision in an Act of Parliament shall be taken to be a reference to that provision as it may have been amended or superseded from time to time.

18.5.2 This Part shall not apply to the non-renewal of a fixed-term contract, which shall be dealt with under paragraph 19.15 below.

18.6 Definition of “redundancy”

18.7 Procedure for dismissal by reason of redundancy

18.7.1 The Council shall prescribe (in the Annex to this Regulation) the procedures for dismissing members of staff on grounds of redundancy, which shall include the following:

(i) a preliminary stage involving consultation with appropriate representatives in accordance with and to the extent required by section 188 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 and discussion with the staff concerned;

(iii) provision for informing any member of staff dismissed under this Part of the reasons for the dismissal and, where selection has taken place, why he or she was selected; and
(iv) authorising the Provost or other person to dismiss any member of staff selected for dismissal under this Part and requiring reports of dismissals to be submitted to the Council.

18.7.2 The procedures following the preliminary stage may be used at any particular time only after the Council has first determined that the circumstances are such that the procedures should be instituted.
18.8 Appeal against dismissal by reason of redundancy

18.8.1 The procedure prescribed by Council under this Part shall include provision for an appeal to a panel by a member of staff who has been given notice of dismissal under this Part.

18.8.2 The panel shall be entitled to review all aspects of the matter other than the Council’s determination under paragraph 18.7.2 above.

18.8.3 The panel shall have the power to reach a final decision on the matter or to remit the matter for further consideration by the body whose decision is being appealed.

PART III: DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

18.9 Grounds for disciplinary action

18.9.1 Disciplinary action under this Part may be taken, and where found to be appropriate a penalty imposed, in respect of the following:

(i) conduct amounting to a criminal offence, whether or not there has been a prosecution and conviction, of a kind that is judged in all the circumstances to be relevant to the member of staff’s employment by UCL;

(iii) conduct of a kind judged to be inappropriate or unacceptable on the part of a holder of the post held by the member of staff, such as (but not confined to) the following:

   (a) breach of any obligation or duty arising under any of UCL’s regulations regarding financial matters, harassment, equal opportunities, public interest disclosure, health and safety, or data protection or any other rules, regulations or codes binding on the member of staff;

18.10 Disciplinary procedures

18.10.1 The Council shall (in the Annex to this Regulation) promulgate disciplinary procedures for members of staff, which shall provide:
(i) for less serious matters to be dealt with by warnings following a fair and appropriate procedure and for a member of staff to be able to appeal against the imposition of a warning to a person designated by the Provost; and

(ii) for more serious matters, to be dealt with by a procedure which includes provision for the following:

(a) fair and reasonable time limits for each stage;
(b) investigating complaints and dismissing those found to be without substance;
(c) suspension, on full pay, by the Provost pending an investigation or hearing where this is necessary;
(d) a hearing by a panel, authorised by the Provost, at which the member of staff against whom the complaint has been made shall have been informed of the complaint, shall be entitled to be present, to hear the evidence, to call relevant witnesses, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses (but provision may be made for witnesses in appropriate cases to give their evidence behind a screen or from another room or place and for questions to be asked only by a representative);
(e) appropriate penalties, which in addition to warnings and dismissal shall include withholding any forthcoming increment in salary, suspension without pay (for up to three months), and reduction in grade and/or loss of title (and "promoted" for the purpose of this provision shall have the same meaning as in section 204 of the Education Reform Act 1988);
(f) the award of compensation either to UCL or to an individual in respect of any loss caused or damage done;
(g) designating a member of staff’s conduct as constituting "gross misconduct" such as to merit summary dismissal without notice; and
(h) a right to appeal against the finding of, or penalty imposed by, the panel, including a finding under paragraph (g) above. An appeal shall not take the form of a re-hearing of the evidence and witnesses may be called only with the appeal panel’s permission.

18.11 Code of Practice

18.11.1 In drawing up the procedures, and in any regulations made or action taken thereunder, regard shall be had to Section 1 of the Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures (as may be amended or replaced from time to time) issued in September 2000 by the Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) and brought into effect by order of the Secretary of State under section 199 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consultation) Act 1992.

18.12 Dismissal

18.12.1 The Director of Human Resources or other designated officer shall give effect to a decision of a panel that a member of staff should be dismissed:

(i) where the panel has designated the conduct as “gross misconduct” such as to merit summary dismissal pursuant to clause 18.10(ii)(g), the Director of Human Resources shall forthwith dismiss the member of staff;

(ii) in all other cases, the Director of Human Resources shall issue the notice of dismissal or dismiss together with payment in lieu of notice.
18.12.2 Any dismissal or notice of dismissal shall be cancelled, withdrawn or modified if an appeal panel decides that the member of staff should not be dismissed or should only be dismissed with notice.

18.13 Relationship with Part IV

18.13.1 The procedures adopted under this Regulation shall make provision for dealing with a case in progress under this Part where it emerges that the member of staff’s conduct or performance may have been wholly or partly attributable to a medical condition, but any proceedings under this Part shall be valid even if they could have been brought under Part IV, and a member of staff may, subject to the Equality Act 2010, be subject to penalty, including dismissal, under this Part notwithstanding the fact that his or her conduct may have been wholly or partly attributable to a medical condition.

PART IV: INCAPACITY ON HEALTH GROUNDS

18.14 Dismissal on health grounds

18.14.1 The Council shall prescribe a procedure (in the Annex to this Regulation) for dealing with staff, including dismissal, because of incapacity on health grounds, whether physical or mental.

18.14.2 The procedure shall include a hearing by a panel, with a right of appeal to another panel, and both panels shall contain an appropriately medically qualified person.

18.14.3 No member of staff may be dismissed whether under this Part or Part III where that dismissal would contravene the Equality Act 2010.

PART V: OTHER DISMISSALS

18.15 Non-renewal of a fixed-term contract

18.15.1 The Provost, or other person or persons designated by the Provost, shall in every case where a fixed-term contract is due to terminate consider whether that contract should be renewed or extended or a contract of indefinite duration should be offered, having consulted the appropriate representatives in accordance with and to the extent required by section 188 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 and having given an opportunity to the member of staff to make representations.

18.15.2 A decision not to renew or extend or offer a contract of indefinite duration under the preceding paragraph must be justified on the basis that, in respect of one or more of the following considerations, it is not expedient or desirable to renew or extend the contract or offer a contract of indefinite duration:

(i) the availability of funding for the post, or the financial situation;
(ii) the individual’s performance (following appropriate warnings and counselling);
(iii) the need for the post or the duties attaching to the post;
(iv) the nature and character of the post;
(v) the desirability of making the post permanent and appointing to it after open competition.
18.15.3 A member of staff whose fixed-term contract is not renewed or extended on termination or is not offered a contract of indefinite duration shall be given full reasons for the decision and shall be entitled to have the decision reviewed by a panel in accordance with a procedure to be prescribed in the Annex to this Regulation.

18.15.4 The panel, whose decision shall be final, shall consider whether the reasons advanced in support of the decision are reasonable and supportable.

18.16 Probationary appointments

18.16.1 This Part shall also apply to members of staff who have been appointed subject to review after a period of probationary service.

18.16.2 The Council shall prescribe (in the Annex to this Regulation) a procedure under which staff on probation shall be reviewed and shall include provision for non-confirmation in post at the end of the probationary period if their performance is found to be deficient or for any other substantial reason or reasons they are judged unsuitable to be confirmed in post.

18.16.3 The review referred to in sub-paragraph (2) may encompass matters which, in other circumstances, would fall to be dealt with under Parts II, III or IV of this Statute.

18.16.4 The substance of sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph 18.15 shall apply to a member of staff who has not been confirmed in post under this clause.

18.17 Dismissal on other grounds

18.17.1 This paragraph covers dismissals on any ground falling within paragraph 18.3(2) other than those covered by Parts II, III, IV and paragraphs 18.15 and 18.16 of this Regulation (i.e. "some other substantial reason of a kind such as to justify the dismissal of an employee holding the position which the employee held" (Employment Rights Act 1996, s. 98(1)(b); "the employee could not continue to work in the position which he held without contravention (either on his part or on that of his employer) of a duty or restriction imposed by or under an enactment" (s. 98 (2)(d))).

18.17.2 Dismissals covered by sub-paragraph (1) above shall be handled in accordance with a procedure prescribed by Council, which shall include the right to be heard by a panel and the right to appeal to a panel.

PART VI: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

18.18 Grievance Procedure

18.18.1 The Council shall promulgate (in the Annex to this Regulation) a Grievance Procedure for members of staff and in doing so shall have regard to Section 2 of the Code of Practice (as may be amended or replaced from time to time) referred to in paragraph 18.11 above.

18.18.2 The Procedure shall apply to grievances by members of staff concerning their appointments or employment in relation to matters affecting themselves as individuals or their personal dealings or relationships with other staff of UCL, other than those for which provision is made elsewhere in this Regulation or in respect of the outcome of any matter dealt with under this Regulation, or where the Council has prescribed other procedures, provided those other procedures are no less favourable to the individual than under the Grievance Procedure.

18.18.3 The Procedure shall provide that consideration of a complaint under the Procedure may be deferred if other proceedings under this Regulation concerning the individual and relevant to the application are pending or in progress.

18.18.4 The Procedure shall provide for the fair and speedy resolution of complaints, informally wherever possible, and for the complainant to be entitled to be assisted by any other member of staff or by a trade union representative at any hearings prior to that under sub-paragraph (5) below.

18.18.5 The Procedure shall make provision for a member of staff who is dissatisfied with the outcome of a complaint to be able to have the complaint heard by a Grievance Panel unless the complaint has been ruled frivolous, vexatious or invalid in accordance with the Procedure.
