For students enrolled on ITE programmes, an ethics application form will only be required if the student plans to collect data that goes beyond that which would occur as part of their professional practice. This should be discussed with the supervisor before any research begins.