Rape and Sexual Violence – Specialist Contacts

Rape Crisis

- Rape Crisis is a service for women and girls who have experienced sexual abuse and rape. Offers a free national helpline, group and individual counselling services, and an advocacy service for women survivors. They offer support to all women, regardless of when their experiences were.
- The national helpline is 0808 802 9999. It is open between 12 - 2.30pm and 7 – 9.30pm.
- Rape Crisis have several centres in London where students can access their services.
  - Rape Crisis South London:
    - 0208 683 3311
    - info@rasasc.org.uk
  - Rape Crisis North London:
    - 0808 801 0305 (10 – 4, Monday – Friday)
    - rapecrisis@solacewomensaid.org
  - Rape Crisis East London:
    - 020 7683 1210 (Mon / Fri / Sat mornings (10am-12pm), Tue / Wed / Thu evenings (6pm-8pm)
    - rapecrisis@niaendingviolence.org.uk
  - Rape Crisis West London:
    - 020 8567 7347
    - info@wgn.org.uk

Survivors UK

- Survivors UK is a service for men and boys who have experienced sexual abuse and rape. Offers an online webchat for individuals seeking support, an advocacy service, and individual counselling for men over the age of 18 in London.
  - Go to survivorsuk.org for information on web and SMS chat services
  - info@survivorsuk.org
  - Counselling sessions are not free, but fees operate on a sliding scale.
  - Survivors UK also keeps a national database of counselling services they have provided training to on their website.

Camden Safety Net

- Camden Safety Net is a service run by Camden Council, providing advocacy services and counselling for survivors of domestic and sexual violence. The service is open to anyone who lives, works, or studies in Camden, so UCL students should be covered. The service is open to people of all genders.
  - The Centre is open 9am – 5pm, Monday -Friday
The Havens

- The Havens are a network of three specialist sexual assault referral centres located across London and open 24/7. They provide medical care, other support, and forensic examinations for people who have been sexually assaulted in the last 12 months. The service is open to people of all genders.
  - Appointments can be made by calling 020 3299 6900