National Student Survey 2015
UCL Results
22 questions in 6 areas

Teaching

Assessment & feedback

Academic support

Organisation & management

Learning resources

Personal development

Students Union & Overall satisfaction
71% of UCL final year students took the National Student Survey in 2015
83% of UCL students were satisfied or very satisfied with the overall experience of their course.
85% of students were satisfied with their teaching
61% were satisfied with their assessment and feedback
76% were satisfied with the academic support they received
80% were satisfied with the organisation of their course
84% were satisfied with UCL’s learning resources (the library, IT)
79% were satisfied with their personal development
62% of UCL students were satisfied with the Students Union.
Medical Sciences students were the most satisfied faculty, followed by Laws students. The least satisfied were Engineering Sciences students and the Institute of Education.