The following regulations apply to students enrolled on undergraduate programmes in the Faculty of Social and Historical Sciences at UCL in addition to the main taught programme regulations detailed in the UCL Academic Manual and in particular in Chapter 1: Admissions, Registration and Student Conduct and Chapter 4: Assessment Framework for Taught Programmes.

Variations for the Award of an Honours Degree

1.1 Consideration for the Award of an Honours Degree

1. For the first year of study, only the best course unit (or two half-units) or one nominated course unit (or two half-units), determined in advance in accordance with local rules, will be included in the degree classification calculations.
2. For the second year of study, all four course units will be included in the degree classification calculations.
3. Degree classifications are calculated on the basis of the median of weighted course unit marks.
