

First notice for the international conference:

Mining for Copper

Environment, Culture and Copper in Antiquity In memory of Professor Beno Rothenberg

> Timna, Israel, April 22-25, 2013 Call for Papers

The international conference will be dedicated to the research of copper-related geology and mining, production and cultural background in antiquity.

Tentative program:

April 22nd

Noon: registration

Afternoon: guided visit to Timna

Evening: opening session, lecture by keynote speaker 1

April 23rd

Academic session (in the Eilot Regional Council auditorium).

April 24th Academic session (in the Eilot Regional Council auditorium).

Afternoon: closing session, lecture by keynote speaker 2 Evening: farewell party.

April 25th

Bus tour to the ancient mining sites in Feinan area, Jordan, guided by the excavators.

Afternoon: return to Israel.

* Abstracts of up to 350 words written in English, must be submitted electronically at the following email before October 31, 2012

microarchaeology@gmail.com

* Further information including registration fees will be announced in the following circular

Steering committee: Assaf Holzer (Timna Park), Dr. Erez Ben Yosef (Tel Aviv University), Dr. Hanan Ginat (Dead Sea & Aravah Science Center), Prof. Yuval Goren (Tel Aviv University).