

PROJECT AND ENTERPRISE MANAGEMENT MSc

Application processing time

Application processes vary from programme to programme across UCL. Some selectors wait until the programme application deadline has passed before considering all applications together or in a number of different rounds. Other selectors consider applications as soon as they are received.

For this programme, applications are considered in a number of different rounds, as indicated on the tables below.

The final deadline for submitting an application online for full-time study is 28 May 2021.

The final deadline for submitting an application online for modular/flexible study is 30 July 2020.

Please note that the Graduate Admissions Office will not pass your application to the selectors for consideration until your academic transcripts and references have been submitted.

Academic departments may contact you during the application process. Please note that only the Graduate Admissions Office is able to make you an official, binding offer.

You can check the status of your references by logging into the Applicant portal.

Please note that we will only consider one application to this programme: that is, you may not apply for full-time and modular/flexible study.

Please note that General Student Visa (Tier 4) holders are eligible for full-time study only at UCL.
