

In the centre of the map increased strength of the regional economy will eventually make more capital available to develop land (R4 affordable proximity to jobs stimulates the economy). Depending on local authority requirements, this can lead to more affordable and social houses, stimulating the regional employment rate

