

Bartlett Research Exchange: Ethics in Built Environment Research – what particular challenges do we face as built environment professionals and researchers to practice ethically today?

4-7pm Monday 1 December 2014

G.02, The Bartlett School of Architecture, 140 Hampstead Road, London, NW1 2BX.

4.00: Intro (Professor Jane Rendell)

Session 1: Contexts (chair: Rendell)

4.10: Andrew Cooper (Director of Research Evaluation, UCL) – Ethics and the Research Concordat (UCL wide)

4.20: Dr Andrew Clarke (Director of Research Planning, UCL) – Ethics and Research Funding (UCL wide)

4.30: Caren Levy (Vice Dean International, The Bartlett) – Ethics in the Bartlett's International Strategy (Bartlett)

4.40: Andrew Edkins (Vice Dean Enterprise, The Bartlett) – Ethics at the Intersection of Research-Enterprise (Bartlett)

4.50: Michelle Shipworth – Bartlett Walks the Talk?

5.00: Professor Susan Michie (Director of UCL's Centre for Behavioural Change) – response

5.10-5.30: Questions/Discussion

break

Session 2: Projects (chair: Rendell)

5.40: Dr Claire Colomb (Bartlett School of Planning), Richard Lee (London Just Space network), Michael Edwards (Bartlett School of Planning, UCL Just Space)

Doing research about, with and for community groups: opportunities, ethical challenges and good practice

5.50: Dr Michael Walls – Research Ethics from the South.

6.00: Dr Shepley Orr – Poverty Policy and Built Environment: Quality versus Cash/in-kind transfers

6.10: Dr Martin Austwick – Ethics, Data, Politics

6.20: Professor Andrew Barry (Chair of Human Geography) – response

6.30: Questions/Discussion