

Global Food Security: Adaptation, Resilience and Risk

9-10 November 2015 | Roberts Building, UCL

Programme

Day One

12.30 Registration

13.30 Opening Keynote

Prof Pete Smith, Aberdeen University

14.00 Session 1 Complexity and Resilience in the Food System

- Ruthie Musker 'Applying ontologies to resilience in food systems'
- Jeferson Asprilla 'Contribution of wild food to the household food security'
- Dr Lassi Linnanen 'Capturing socio-technical complexity to navigate within the nitrogen and phosphorus boundaries'
- Klaus Krumme & Dr Ani Melkonyan 'Fertilizing Solutions on the Water Energy Food Security Nexus from a Sustainable Supply Chain Management Perspective'

15.30 Coffee

16.00 Session 2 Food Security: Understanding Food Markets and Trade

- Craig Shenton 'Understanding the effect of trade restrictions on the network structure of internationally traded food-commodities'
- Davide Natalini 'Agent Based Modelling to analyse food markets and production shocks'
- Roberto Pasqualino 'Dynamics of the food and energy systems'
- Dr Carole Dalin 'Water resources transfers through southern African food trade: water efficiency and climate signals'

17.30 Wrap up

18.00 Networking Reception and Research Poster Display

Day Two

9.00 Registration

10.00 Opening Keynote

Kelly Stiebel, Project Manager, National Centre for Universities and Business

10.30 Session 3 Changing Patterns of Food Demand

- Antony Froggatt 'Shifting consumption: encourage behaviour change through awareness-raising'
- Elisabetta Aurino 'Changing patterns of food demand: the case of adolescent patterns'
- Meena Fernandes 'Gender Bias in Dietary Diversity in the Lifecourse of Children and Adolescents in India'
- Lukasz Aleksandrowicz 'Dietary intake in India: a data issue?'

12.00 Lunch

13.00 Session 4 Food Policy: Growth v Sustainability (Panel Debate)

- Prof Michael Winter OBE, Director of the Centre for Rural Policy Research, University of Exeter
- Alison Cairns, External Affairs Director UK & Ireland, Unilever
- Prof Guy Poppy, Chief Scientific Adviser to the Food Standards Agency
- Robin Willoughby, Policy Adviser, Food and Climate Justice Team, Oxfam

14.00 Wrap up

14.30 Networking Reception and Research Poster Display

16.00 Conference Close

Hosted by:

Find out more at www.bartlett.ucl.ac.uk/sustainable