PROGRAMME

27 September 2014

Institute of Historical Research
Senate House | Malet Street
London WC1E 7HU | Woburn Suite

h. 11:00-11:30am Registration

h. 11:30am-12:45pm Plenary Lecture
| Dr John Edwards (Oxford), The Black Legend – then and now

h. 12:45 – 1:45pm Lunch

h. 1:45 – 3:15pm Panel A Black Legend outside Spain | Chair: Dr Elizabeth Evenden | Discussant: Prof. Mia Rodríguez-Salgado (LSE)

A.1 Daniel Lange (Kent | Berlin), ‘Spitted on wooden stakes and roasted alive, like killing a pig’. Violence, Torture, and the ‘Black Legend’ in 17th-Century Buccaneer Narratives

h. 3:15 – 3:45pm Coffee Break

h. 3:15 – 4:45pm Panel B Black Legend within Habsburg dominions | Chair: Valentina Caldari | Discussant: Dr Glyn Redworth

B.1 Dr Giuseppe Mrozek (Teramo), Corruption and Crisis. Julián Juderías And the Hechuras of the Duke of Lerma
B.2 Dr Rubén González Cuerva (German Historical Institute, Rome), The Spanish Faction in the Holy Empire: the Creation of a Historiographical Prejudice

h. 4: 45 – 5:00pm Coffee Break

h. 5:00 – 6:00pm Roundtable
Discussion chaired by Prof Sir John Elliott (Oxford) | Participants: Prof. Mia Rodríguez-Salgado (LSE); Dr Alexander Samson (UCL); Dr Glyn Redworth; Dr Yolanda Rodríguez Perez (Amsterdam); Dr John Edwards (Oxford)

h.6:00 – 7:00pm Wine Reception

REGISTRATION FORM
To be sent via email to BlackLegendCentenary@outlook.com

Name: ____________________________________________

Surname: __________________________________________

Affiliation: ________________________________________

Contact Email: ____________________________________

Dietary Requirements: ______________________________

Conference Fee* (To be paid in cash upon arrival): Please Tick One

Full Fee: £20 ______

Students/Concessions: £15 ______

* Conference Fee includes: Lunch, two Coffee Breaks and Wine Reception Forthcoming Event

Anglo-Iberian Relations, 1500-1850
Mértola, Portugal | 9-11 April 2015

We are now accepting individual papers, panels, and roundtables by academics and heritage professionals for what is hoped to be the first of a biennial conference in this vibrant field of European History.

Papers should be 20 minutes in length. Abstracts of up to 300 words for individual papers, and panel/roundtable descriptions, together with details of affiliation and career, should be sent to: anglo.iberian2015@gmail.com no later than 30 October 2014.

For further information please contact:
Elizabeth Evenden:
evenden@fas.harvard.edu
or Valentina Caldari:
vc90@kent.ac.uk

1914-2014 The Black Legend - Then and Now

The Institute of Historical Research, Senate House, London

Saturday 27 September 2014

A hundred years have passed since the publication of Julián Juderías' La Leyenda Negra. To celebrate the centenary there will be a one-day Symposium at The Institute of Historical Research, Senate House, London. The day will assess where subsequent scholarship has taken the study of the Black Legend since the publication of Juderías’ classic text, and will also focus on the current research of graduate students in the field.

Organisers:
Dr Elizabeth Evenden (Harvard University | Brunel University)
Valentina Caldari (University of Kent | Universidade do Porto)

BlackLegendCentenary@outlook.com