

CARD3001: Clinical Case Studies in Cardiovascular Medicine

READING LIST

In addition to material covered in the lectures and case series the following are recommended resources for general reading:

General reading

Online

Introduction to evidence based practice tutorial

<http://guides.mclibrary.duke.edu/c.php?g=158201&p=1036002> - an excellent online introductory course on evidence based medicine

Textbooks

- Evidence based medicine toolkit 2nd edition – Carl Heneghan & Douglas Badenoch - short, comprehensive and clear overview of core topics (and more)
- How to Read a Paper: The Basics of Evidence-Based Medicine - Trisha Greenhagh - longer, focus on critical appraisal of articles, worked examples
- Landmark Papers in Cardiovascular Medicine – Aung Myat & Tony Gerschlick - useful perspective on some papers that have changed practice in cardiovascular medicine

+ Use of Evidence and Use of Medicines modules from Year 2 CPP course