Fall Symposium

November 25-26, 2013

(Monday-Tuesday)

Purpose: Genetic Diseases of nerve and muscle affect hundreds of thousands of Americans and are largely untreatable by medications that would slow progression. However translational scientists forming the faculty of this meeting are in the forefront of developing therapies for these devastating illnesses. Therapies that these investigators are developing will become standards worldwide over the next decade for diseases of nerve and muscle.

Intended Audience: Neurologists, Physicians, Residents (current and former), Fellows and Medical Students.

Iowa City is served by Allegiant, American Airlines, Delta, Frontier Airlines, and United Airlines through the Eastern Iowa Airport (Cedar Rapids) which is 30 minutes from Iowa City. The phone number of the Eastern Iowa Airport is (319) 362-8336. Commercial limousine or taxi service is available from the airport to Iowa City. Airport shuttles may be reserved from Cedar Rapids to Iowa City upon arrival at the Eastern Iowa Airport, or you may reserve a shuttle to Iowa City in advance by calling (800) 383-2219 or (800) 725-8460. The Iowa City Municipal Airport is available for use by private aircraft.
General Information

Objectives: Upon completion of this symposium the learner should be able to:
- Identify pathogenic mechanisms that cause genetic diseases of nerve and muscle.
- Utilize the current standards of care for managing genetic diseases of nerve and muscle.
- Describe how to diagnose genetic diseases of nerve and muscle in a rational manner.
- Discuss the clinical presentation and management of genetic diseases of nerve and muscle.

Registration Fee: The symposium is free. If you wish to attend the dinner on Monday, November 25, the cost is $60 per person. Deadline for the dinner reservation is November 18, 2013. A $25 fee will be charged for canceled dinner reservations.

While registration to the symposium is free we encourage early registration to enable us to provide the best possible service to participants.
