

Neuromuscular Translational Research Conference 2023

Accommodation Self-Book suggestions

*There are many hotels in the area, as we are situated in one of the main tourist areas of London. The average price in the area for 3* accommodation is around £250-£300 per night. The below options are recommended as being budget-friendly and close to the venue.*

- Accommodation is available at the below on a first come first served basis.
- Please check all prices, breakfast etc. when you book – the below prices are a guide at time of writing.
- Please check cancellation policies for your individual booking – some allow 24 hrs cancellation – some require 100% payment even with 28 days notice
