

BLOOMSBURY THEATRE

Gordon Street, London, WC1
(LRT Euston Square or Euston)

Lunchtime Concert - 1.00 to 2.00 pm Friday 23 March 2007

A Grand Concert of Music from 18th-century Bath

Featuring a rarely heard symphony by famous astronomer Sir William Herschel, together with a harpsichord concerto by Thomas Chilcot,
the very first symphony by young Wolfgang Mozart, a concerto grosso by Mr Handel, Brandenburg Concerto no 4
by JS Bach
and sundry other delights

Brought to you by Bath's own Georgian Band from Bath Spa University

Concert Master: Dr Matthew Spring

Admission free and all are welcome