

Nicolas Hall

Short Biographical Statement

Research Assistant, the Louis Dundas Centre for Children's Palliative Care, UCL Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health

Nicolas joined the Louis Dundas Centre for Children's Palliative Care at the UCL Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health in February 2015 as a Research Assistant. He is undertaking a BSc in Social Sciences at Birkbeck, University of London, and his current research at the Louis Dundas Centre focuses on the communication of prognostic information between clinicians and the parents of children with high-risk brain tumours.