Find your h-index in Web of Science

1. Go to the Web of Science at wok.mimas.ac.uk and click to gain access:

Click here to access
Web of Science

2. Select Author Search from the search options above the search box.

Basic Search    Author Search <sup>BETA</sup>    Cited Reference Search    Advanced Search

3. You can search by name or by Web of Science ResearcherID or ORCID, although the h-index will be calculated using only records in the Web of Science Core Collection. To search by name, type your name into the search boxes. Click on Add Author Name Variant beneath the search box to add all the ways that your name might appear in your publications.
