

THE UCL GREEK PLAY THE MEDEA

BLOOMSBURY THEATRE

BRITISH MUSEUM

After the success of last year's Greek play, the Agamemnon, the Classical Society and the Department of Greek of University College London are producing the Medea of Euripides. We have again decided to perform the play in translation in the hope that we can present Greek theatre to the widest possible audience. The Medea will be performed by students of UCL in carefully researched tragic masks and costumes before an appropriate set.

Tickets for the Bloomsbury performances are available from the Bloomsbury Theatre box office or by post using the form below.

As this year's UCL Greek play is part of the first London Festival of Greek Drama, the cast and production team of the Medea will be participating in a Greek theatre workshop at the British Museum. This will take the form of lectures, scenes from the play and an opportunity to discuss aspects of the Greek theatre with the production team.

Booking information is available by contacting Education Service, British Museum, Great Russell Street, London WC1B 3DG.
Tel. 01-636 1555 ext. 511.

BOOKING INFORMATION

BOX OFFICE: Bloomsbury Theatre, Gordon Street, London WC1H 0AH.
Telephone: 01-387 9629

Open: Monday-Saturday 10.00am-8.00pm (6.00pm if no performance).
Sunday: 5.00pm until performance (perf eves only).

TICKET INFORMATION: For further information on ticket prices please contact the Box Office.

TRANSPORT: BR: Euston/Kings Cross/St Pancras
TUBE: Euston/Euston Sq/Warren St
BUSES: Ample routes along Euston Road and Tottenham Court Road.

PARKING: Free street parking after 6.30pm and weekends.

DISABLED FACILITIES: Access for the disabled.

CATERING: The Theatre Bar which is fully stocked with beers, spirits, wine, soft drinks, freshly-made coffee and snacks is open from an hour before most performances and also after the performance.

THE BLOOMSBURY THEATRE: Situated within a mile of London's West End, the Bloomsbury offers one of the busiest and most wide-ranging programmes of events in town - all the year round. We present top visiting companies from home and abroad - opera, dance, drama, concerts and children's shows. As part of University College London we also stage College productions from musicals to foreign language plays.

With such a varied programme, competitive ticket prices, easy parking and transport, restaurants nearby - the Bloomsbury is well worth a visit!

You can keep up-to-date with what is happening at the Bloomsbury by joining the FREE MAILING LIST for the next twelve months. Apply at the Box Office or write to: Bloomsbury Theatre (Mailing List), 15 Gordon Street, London WC1H 0AH.

POSTAL BOOKINGS: Cheques should be made payable to the Bloomsbury Theatre. Please enclose a S.A.E.

TELEPHONE BOOKINGS: Should be paid for within 3 days, or 45 minutes before the performance, whichever is the sooner.

Please reserve the following seats:

..... forday March at £3 / £2 matinee / evening
..... forday March at £3 / £2 matinee / evening

(Should seats not be available as above, an alternative date would be:

.....day March.)

I enclose remittance for £..... made payable to "Bloomsbury Theatre" and a stamped/addressed envelope

Tickets should be sent to:

Name

Address

.....

.....

Postcode Telephone