

Doctoral Course in Clinical Psychology Training Handbook – contents

COURSE ORGANISATION

- Section 1 – Core Purpose, Values and Philosophy
- Section 2: Staff in the Research Department
- Section 3: Computing and Library resources
- Section 4: Committee Structure and Trainee Representation

TEACHING PROGRAMME & ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

- Section 5: Aims and Objectives of the Teaching Programme
- Section 6: The Teaching Programme

CLINICAL PLACEMENTS

A. Guidance on setting up the placement

- Section 7: Placement Schedule
- Section 8: Clinical Placement Guidelines and Contracts
- Section 9: Basic template for the placement contract
- Section 10: Consulting with service-user representatives and service users/carers while on placement

B. Procedures for monitoring the placement

- Section 11: Monitoring clinical progression through training
- Section 12: Overview of procedures for Monitoring Placements
- Section 13: Format and content of the Mid-Placement Review
- Section 14: Overview of forms used to monitor the placement
- Section 15: End of Placement: Supervisor and Trainee Feedback Forms
- Section 16: Clinical Portfolio

RESEARCH REQUIREMENTS

Section 17: An overview of the research component

Section 18: The Service-Related Research Report

Section 19: The Major Research Project

ACADEMIC ASSESSMENTS

Section 20 Examinations

Section 21: Case Report Guidelines

COURSE REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES RELATED TO PASSING AND FAILING EACH COURSE COMPONENT

Section 22: Programme regulations

Section 23: Plagiarism

Section 24: Procedures relating to passing and failing Examinations

Section 25: Procedures relating to passing and failing case reports and the service related research report

Section 26: Procedures relating to passing and failing the major research component

Section 27: Procedures relating to passing and failing placements

FITNESS TO PRACTISE PROCEDURES

Section 28: Procedures for the assessment of fitness to practise in a professional capacity

Section 29: Fitness to practise: a guide for students

APPEALS, GRIEVANCES AND COMPLAINTS

Section 30: Appeals and grievances in relation to course procedure & complaints in relation to discrimination or harassment

Section 31: Implementation of equality and diversity policies at UCL and in the NHS

TRAINEE DEVELOPMENT AND SOURCES OF SUPPORT

Section 32: Sources of Professional and Personal Support

Section 33: Role of the Course Tutor

Section 34: Developmental review – format and content

SERVICE USERS AND THE COURSE

Section 35: Service user and carer involvement in and with the Course

REGULATIONS AND REGISTRATION

Section 36: The Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC) and Clinical Psychology Training

Section 37: BPS Accreditation criteria for courses in Clinical Psychology

TRAINEE ADMINISTRATION

Section 38: Trainee record keeping

Section 39: Claiming Travel Expenses

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Section 40: Basic Terms and Conditions for trainees (Employment, Annual Leave and Attendance)

APPENDICES

Health and Care Professions Council standards

Appendix 1: HCPC Standards of Proficiency

Appendix 2: HCPC Standards of Conduct, Performance and Ethics

Appendix 3: HCPC Standards of Continuing professional development

BPS criteria and codes

Appendix 4: BPS Accreditation criteria for Clinical Psychology Courses

Appendix 5a: BPS Code of Ethics and Conduct

Appendix 5b: BPS Ethics Committee guidance on use of social media

Health and Safety

Appendix 6: Health and Safety in the Research Department

NHS Constitution

Appendix 7: The NHS constitution

Information about the BPS

Appendix 8: The BPS and clinical training