

Government Defeat in Lords on Offender Management Bill

Wednesday 23/05/2007

On 23/05/2007 the government had a defeat in the House of Lords on an amendment to the Offender Management Bill: To require that contracted-out providers of probation services ensure that there is no conflict of interest between the services they provide and their own financial interests, particularly with respect to advice given to the courts.

This was defeat number 23 in the parliamentary session.
