

Government Defeat in Lords on Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Bill

Wednesday 10/10/2007

On 10/10/2007 the government had a defeat in the House of Lords on an amendment to the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Bill: To remove a provision allowing for an "elected executive" in local government in England, comprising an elected leader and two or more other persons elected to the executive.

This was defeat number 42 in the parliamentary session.
