

Government Defeat in Lords on Consumer Rights Bill

Wednesday 19/11/2014

On 19/11/2014 the government had a defeat in the House of Lords on an amendment to the Consumer Rights Bill: To insert a clause requiring secondary ticketing operators to be more transparent, including the provision of information concerning the name of the seller, the face value of the ticket, any age restrictions on the ticket, and details of the seat location.

This was defeat number 6 in the parliamentary session.
