Victor Horsley: a continuing legacy

Commemorating the centenary of Horsley’s death

Date: Wednesday 23rd November 2016
Time: 17:00-19:10, followed by a reception
Location: 33 Queen Square, Basement Lecture Theatre, National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery, Queen Square, London, WC1N 3BG

PROGRAMME

Professor Simon Shorvon: “Sir Victor Horsley - life, wars and premature death”
Professor Rob Brownstone: “Horsley and Sherrington and the discovery of the pyramidal tract”
Professor Marwan Hariz: “Horsley and the women pioneers after him…”

Sir Victor Horsley Lecture by Dr Zelma Kiss

Sir Victor Horsley Lecture
Dr Zelma Kiss
Section of Neurosurgery, Department of Clinical Neuroscience
University of Calgary
“History of stereotactic and functional neurosurgery: A marriage of science and surgery”

Please register online via http://tiny.cc/horsley

Note: There is a Victor Horsley exhibition in the Library, 1st floor, 23 Queen Square Nov 2016 – Feb 2017