

Yannis Kastis

UCL Department of Economics
30 Gower Street
London WC1H0AX, UK

Phone +44 (0)75 1926 7131
Email yannis.kastis.17@ucl.ac.uk

Education

- Current MPhil/PhD in Economics
University College London, UK
Supervisors: Christian Dustmann, Ian Preston
- 2019 MRes in Economics (with Distinction)
University College London, UK
Thesis: Immigration in modern Britain: The impact on the native wage distribution.
- 2018 MSc in Economics (with Distinction)
University College London, UK
Thesis: The impact of the Great Recession on European wage inequality.
- 2017 BSc in Economics and Mathematics (with Merit)
University of Bristol, UK
Thesis: Inequality and growth: The choice of investing in education over fertility.

Research Fields

Labor Economics, Applied Microeconomics, Economics of Migration, Applied Econometrics.

Research Experience

- 2019-now Centre for Research and Analysis of Migration (CReAM), UCL
Research Officer
-RA for Christian Dustmann
-data analysis and literature research

Teaching Experience

- 2019-2021 Economics 101 (Undergraduate, UCL)
TA for Parama Chaudhury, Dunli Li, Wendy Carlin, Cloda Jenkins and Antonio Cabrales

Scholarships and Awards

- 2020 Best Teaching Assistant on a First-Year Undergraduate Module, UCL
- 2019-now Tuition Fee Waiver, UCL
- 2018-2021 UCL Studentship Award

Other Professional Experience

- 2016 Foundation of Economic and Industrial Research, Athens Greece
Macroeconomic Policy and Analysis Intern
-Created the database and set the foundations for a study of the impact of Greek tax reforms on Greek revenues and growth between the critical years 2009 and 2015.
-Desk research and literature review on the issue of social mobility and its role in explaining economic growth and social cohesion.
- 2015 Bank of Greece, Research and Analysis Intern
-Involved in statistical data collection for the construction of commercial and residential property indices announced by the Bank on a quarterly basis.
-Member of the team responsible for collecting updated data on overdue mortgages of the Greek banks, data important for the banks' recapitalization that was about to take place.

Computer Skills

Stata, Matlab, MS-Office, LaTeX.

Language Skills

English (fluent), Greek (native), French (intermediate).

(last updated: March 2021)