

Invitation

Extending working life and health

Policy Seminar, Tuesday 2 June 2015, UCL London 1.45 – 4pm

(Preceded by lunch at 1pm and followed by afternoon tea)

RSVP essential. Email: icls@ucl.ac.uk

Presentations and Speakers:

- Working longer: paid employment beyond age 65 years. David Blane, UCL
- Who works beyond the state pension age and are there health benefits? Giorgio Di Gessa , KCL
- The impact of working beyond state pension age on volunteering, caregiving and well-being. Katey Mathews, Manchester University
- Geographic inequalities, health and exit from the work force. Emily Murray, UCL

Chairperson: Richard Bartholomew, (former) Chief Research Officer, Children, Young People and Families Directorate, Department for Education.

There is no fee for this seminar but please RSVP seminar attendance (indicating any special needs). E-mail: icls@ucl.ac.uk .

Venue details at will be available on registration.

Nearest underground station: Euston Square, Goodge Street or Warren Street.

Nearest over ground: Kings Cross www.ucl.ac.uk/icls/policy_seminars