ESP0001 Introduction to History, Law, Politics and Philosophy
Preliminary Reading List

The eight sections are listed in the order in which they will be taught.

- Denotes highly recommended readings

Political Science I: Challenges to the State in World Politics

NB: For the “must read”/required readings, see the section reading list on the Moodle page. These are readings to pursue if you are particularly interested in a topic.

Key contributions to major theoretical debates in IR:

On the state:

Armed challenges to the state from within and outside:

Introduction to IR textbook:
History I: History of Political Thought

ESPS STUDENTS ONLY

General approaches to the theory and practice of history:

Global Politics

ISPS STUDENTS ONLY

The Liberal International Order

Globalization

Case Study: Climate Change

Political Science II: Key Issues and Problems in Politics

Law: Selected Topics of International Law

History II: Explaining Modernity

General approaches to the theory and practice of history:

- Maza, Sarah, Thinking about History. Chicago, 2017

Specific topics to be covered in class and more general surveys:

Philosophy

Political Science III: Political Economy

Markets and the State:

Models of Political Institutions:

Further optional reading

June 2019