IOE Global Engagement Strategy drivers:

1. Cultivating our global outlook to offer our students the best possible preparation for global lives and careers
2. Co-creating wise solutions to global challenges and problems
3. Increasing independent research capability around the world
4. Marshalling our expertise in enterprise, innovation and translational research
5. Strengthening our position as London's Global University by amplifying our achievements and engaging more effectively.

IOE mission: to pursue excellence in education and social research and related fields of professional practice. In undertaking this mission, we adhere to the highest standards of academic rigour, are guided by a concern for truth and social justice, and seek to make a positive contribution to the development of individuals, institutions and societies. We want to improve lives through education – enhancing opportunities, experiences and outcomes – and promote social participation to address local and global challenges.
