Given the uncertainty surrounding international travel, we strongly encourage applicants to explore methods of remote collaboration. Activities can include:

- Organising a joint seminar/workshop (remotely or in person, with travel restrictions in mind) including costs for any external services required to facilitate the event, e.g. professional moderation or technical support
- Visiting a collaborator to work on a research paper/project or other research activity that cannot be carried out remotely
- Stipends for research assistants, interns and students
- Doctoral student mobility
- Services used to disseminate results
- This list isn't exhaustive and we understand that there may be other ways you wish to conduct the project

4. Value and duration

4.2. Please note that British and South African universities have different financial years and this will have an impact on funding schedule. Funds provided by UCL must be spent by 31 July 2022, whereas funds provided by OU must be spent by November 2022. Applicants should take this into account when planning their proposed activity.

8. Selection process

- i. Proposals are received by Wits and forwarded to UCL for separate review at each institution.
- ii. Selection Criteria: Both internal review committees will assess each proposal according to the following criteria:
  - Project design and rationale (how clearly presented and justified is the design and basis for the collaboration?)
  - Project impact (how clearly linked are the outcomes to the planned activities and performance indicators, such as joint papers, external funding applications, joint research with industry and proposals for policy recommendations?)
  - Impact of collaboration (is there a distinct advantage provided by this collaboration that is not possible by the two institutions working individually?)
  - Capacity for future collaboration (what is the extent to which future collaborations are possible as a result of the proposed exchange activities?)
- iii. A joint committee will convene to select up to six final proposals.

9. Reporting after project completion

- i. All awardees must, as a condition of receiving an award under this call, complete a narrative report (of between 1 and 2 pages) that describes the outcomes, project impact, student and early career researchers involvement and opportunities for future collaboration that evolved from their project. There will be two reports: An interim report due at the end of the first 6 months describing progress on the activities, and a short follow up report when the project is completed.
